Fall in Love with a New Pet!

VALENTINE ADOPTION FAIR
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 2005

Presented by the San Francisco SPCA and San Francisco Animal Care & Control

It's Where the Critters Are!

WHAT: The San Francisco SPCA and San Francisco Animal Care & Control present the 2005 Valentine Adoption Fair, the best place to find true love. Check out "Personal Ads" describing adoptable animals. Make a love connection with a dog, cat, another furry critter or feathered friend. Have a photograph taken with your new pet or the SF/SPCA mascot, Big Dog. Visit the "Tunnel of Love" featuring animal rescue groups. Meet San Francisco's very own heroes, featured on Animal Planet's new series of Animal Cops. Enjoy refreshments and browse unique pet products for sale.

MORE: The San Francisco SPCA is a nonprofit animal welfare organization dedicated to saving homeless dogs and cats, to providing lifesaving care and treatment to dogs and cats in need, to helping pets stay in loving homes, and to cultivating respect and awareness for the rights and needs of animals. Founded in 1868, The SF/SPCA is a national leader in saving lives and raising the status of companion animals. The SF/SPCA is in the midst of a campaign to raise $30 million to build a state-of-the-art multidisciplinary specialty veterinary medical center, with construction slated to begin in 2005.
